

The City of
SIGNAL HILL
California

invites applications for the position of

CHIEF OF POLICE

RECRUITING SERVICES PROVIDED BY

CITY GOVERNMENT

Signal Hill is a full-service charter city operating under a Council-Manager form of government. The City Council consists of five Council Members elected at-large to four year terms. Each year the Council chooses the Mayor and Vice-Mayor from among the Council Members. The City Clerk and City Treasurer are also elected, while the Council appoints the City Manager, City Attorney, Deputy City Manager, and department heads.

The City Manager serves as the chief administrative officer of the City and is responsible for the day-to-day operations, including administering the annual operating budget. Signal Hill offers the traditional range of services and is organized across the Departments of Administration, Community Development, Community Services, Finance, Police, and Public Works. Fire services are provided by the Los Angeles County Fire Department.

Signal Hill has a history of prudent fiscal practices that have enabled the City to achieve and maintain a stable, positive long-term financial forecast and healthy financial reserves. It is supported by an operating budget of $27.9M and capital budget of $10.6M for Fiscal Year 2021-22.

Signal Hill is ethnically and culturally diverse and proud to be a progressive City that is attentive to the needs of its residents. Its 120 full-time-equivalent employees take a proactive approach to providing top notch services and ensuring a high quality of life for Signal Hill residents. Not surprisingly, the City enjoys the support and confidence of the community. The commendable relationship with the community and a stable work environment helps retain dedicated employees who are equally as committed to the community as they are their jobs. While the organization expects a great deal from staff members, the culture supports flexibility and honors life outside of work.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Signal Hill Police Department is a full-service law enforcement agency serving the needs of the community. The SHPD employs approximately 35 sworn personnel and 16 full-time civilian employees and operates under the divisions of Administration and Operations. The current command structure under the Chief includes the Captain and the Lieutenant.

The SHPD is headquartered in a state-of-the-art, LEED Silver certified 21,500 square foot facility with an Emergency Operation Center, Communications Center, and City Jail.

The Signal Hill Police Department (SHPD) is committed to excellence in service by providing a proactive and professional level of police service, treating all persons with fairness, respect and dignity, and strengthening our partnership with the community.

The Police Department is a well-respected organization within the City structure and throughout the community and has a strong focus on training, professionalism, responsiveness, and community policing. The FY 2022-23 operating budget for the Department is approximately $12 million and provides services related to municipal policing and public safety, 911 communications and dispatch, emergency operations, a City jail, records bureau and parking enforcement.

THE COMMUNITY

The City of Signal Hill is located just 30 miles south of downtown LA and within four miles of the Pacific Ocean. Well-known for the discovery of a vast oil field in 1921 and its subsequent oil history, Signal Hill also claims the only accessible high ground for miles around: a 300-foot hilltop that gives the City its name and provides spectacular panoramic views.

Completely surrounded by the City of Long Beach, Signal Hill was incorporated in 1924 and today boasts one of the lowest business taxes in Los Angeles County, as well as no utility tax or Mello-Roos Assessment Districts. The City is aggressive in its economic development strategies and offers residential, retail and industrial residents the benefits of a full-service municipality while preserving the feeling of a small hometown.

Encompassing 2.2 square miles, Signal Hill has a population of 11,500 full-time residents and a daytime population of over 40,000. Over 80,000 commuters pass through the City each day, utilizing several major transportation arteries. Four major freeways, the Long Beach Airport, and the Blue Line light rail system are all convenient to Signal Hill.

With its central location, this vibrant City offers residents and visitors a wide range of amenities. Nine City parks, an extensive walking trail system, recreation programs, and an array of annual events bring the community together. Signal Hill is part of the Long Beach Unified School District and is home to award-winning public schools and the American University of Health Sciences. Other higher education opportunities abound nearby, including California State University, Long Beach, and Long Beach City College.
